No Lie Blades Combat Training Seminar Series.

No Lie Blades tactical Law Enforcement and Military dynamic training seminars have become the standard for high risk operators and is used by patrol officers who face daily close quarters issues that can turn bad fast.

No Lie Blades has forged a relationship with ADS Tactical Logistics. One of their locations is right outside Cherry Hill NJ, which has a 10,000 sq ft. training deck complete with a 4,000 sq. ft shoot house. It includes numerous rooms, alley ways, stair case, kitchen and jail cell for extraction work.

This realistic environment along with the unique capabilities of the No Lie Blades marking system and the No Lie Blades team of instructors who together have racked up decades of real-world experience makes these training events a must do for operators that want real change, real fast!

No Lie Blades is noted for creating a rapid learning environment where performance and retention is instantly measured and improved on in real-time, resulting in moment to moment progressive learning.
